Raider Athletes of the Month

March 2018

The Female Athlete of the Month is junior pitcher Claire Zimmerman. The returning All-Big 56 performer, as a sophomore, has started out the season hitting .429 with 2 homeruns and 4 RBI's. On the mound Claire is 2-1 with a 1.33 ERA. The Raiders are projected to contend for a section title again and Zimmerman will be a key fixture on the mound and at the plate this season. Good luck Claire and Raider Softball!

The Male Athlete of the Month is senior volleyball player Stone Eckenrode. Stone is one of a few returning team members with varsity experience and his leadership on the court as the squad's libero has been key in getting the Raiders off to a fast start. Stone averages 21 digs per match and 3 serve aces per match. His leadership and consistent play will be key components in determining how far Raider boys volleyball advances throughout the season. Good luck Stone and Raider boys volleyball!
