

Seneca Valley

Raider Athletes of the Month

January, 2024

The Female Athlete of the Month for January is girl's swimmer Morgan Baker. The sophomore has been a key part in another winning season for the Raider girl's swimming and diving program. With seven total first place finishes in multiple distances, Morgan helped her team to an 8-1 record over the course of nine meets in the last month. She placed first in the 100 meter freestyle against NA with a time of 54.69; four first place finishes in the 200 meter freestyle with a best time of 1:58.45; also had wins in the 500 meter freestyle (5:35.32) and 200 meter individual medley (2:23.65). Her times in three events have met the qualifying standards for the 2023-24 Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League (WPIAL) Swimming and Diving Championships. We recognize Morgan as the January Female Athlete of the Month. Congratulations Morgan!

The Male Athlete of the Month for January is senior boy's ice hockey goalkeeper Cenzo Ditullio. Cenzo's incredible play in the net has paced the Raiders all season as they sit atop of the Class 3A Pennsylvania Interscholastic Hockey League (PIHL) standings. The Raiders went 5-0 over the last month with Cenzo in goal including a big 6-4 win over second place Pine Richland. Over the five games, he faced 111 shots with 92 saved, good enough for an 83% save rate and a 3.8 goals per game average. Cenzo was also one of three Raiders to represent Seneca Valley at the 2023-24 PIHL All-Star game. For an impressive month, we recognize Cenzo as the January Male Athlete of the Month. Congratulations Cenzo!