

Seneca Valley

Raider Athletes of the Month

April, 2019

The Female Athlete of the Month is senior girls lacrosse midfielder Madison Edkins. Madison has been dominant on the field for the Raiders as they recorded a 5-4 record during the month and also clinched their spot in the WPIAL playoffs. She led the Raiders in goals (24) and draw controls (94) during this time. She also contributed with seven assists. Madison will attend Stetson University in the fall and will compete for the women's lacrosse team. For an outstanding month, we recognize Madison as the April Athlete of the Month. Congratulations and we look forward to continued success the remainder of the season and into the WPIAL playoffs!

The Male Athlete of the Month is senior boys volleyball outside hitter Colin Uher. Colin played a vital role in leading the Raiders to a 7-3 record during the month of April, in addition to taking third place out of 12 teams at the Seneca Valley Tournament on April 6th. Colin's numbers on the court were impressive throughout the month, collecting 74 kills, 36 digs, 8 aces, and 6 blocks. In addition, his leadership and energy is contagious to his teammates. For an outstanding month, we recognize Colin as the April Athlete of the Month. Congratulations and we look forward to continued success the remainder of the season and into the WPIAL playoffs!

TRI-STATE
ORTHOPAEDICS
& Sports Medicine, Inc.